

1 January 2023

Dear Valued Customer,

Subject: Vibrantz Technologies assigns Delta Colours as distributor effective 1st January 2023.

Vibrantz Technologies South Africa is pleased to announce Delta Colours as our official distributor in South Africa. With this partnership we strive to expand our reach and allow easier access to our liquid dispersion product ranges. This distribution partnership agreement had one focus in mind – to allow a similar or even more improved service consistency to you our valued customer!

As you may be aware, Delta Colours is well known in the Paints & Coatings industry supplying speciality chemicals, and our support will endeavor to make this transition as seamless as possible.

Furthermore, we would like to extend a warm welcome to Delta Colours and provide you with the necessary info to make contact as soon as possible,

For all orders, please send email to – orders@deltacolours.com
